Human Trafficking Task Force, Has Published a Resource Guide
To Assist Service Providers Helping Survivors of Human Trafficking

- WHAT: The Junior League of Long Beach (JLLB) published a comprehensive Resource Guide to assist organizations, agencies and individuals in the greater Long Beach and Los Angeles areas who are helping survivors of human trafficking. The Guide was a collaborative effort between JLLB and the Long Beach Human Trafficking Task Force (LBHTTF). The 25-page document, which contains more than 40 service provider listings organized alphabetically and by service category, can be accessed here: https://www.jllb.org/ama/orig/News/LBHTTF-JLLB_Resource_Guide_1.pdf
- WHO: Interviews with JLLB President Elizabeth McCann and President-Elect Virginia Zart for comment or background information on the issue.
- WHEN: Interviews as scheduled on National Human Trafficking Awareness Day on January 11 and throughout the month
- WHERE: Phone, email or in-person
- CONTACT: Lynda Miller – 310-871-5809, jllbpr@gmail.com
- MORE: The Junior League of Long Beach was established in 1931 as an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. In addition to being a member organization of the Task Force, JLLB is also a member of the Junior Leagues of California State Public Affairs Committee (CalSPAC), a non-partisan and advocacy organization charged with promoting legislation favorable to its member Leagues' community projects and focus areas. www.jllb.org
